

Steadfast Capital strengthens its investment team

Frankfurt am Main, October 2015. The Frankfurt-based private equity firm Steadfast Capital has strengthened its investment team by hiring Sven Matiebe as Investment Principal. His main responsibility is sourcing and execution of transactions as well as assisting portfolio companies.

Sven holds a degree in business administration from Humboldt University of Berlin and started his career in 2003 working as a Corporate Finance Analyst for Cognis Germany. Then he moved to WestLB where he worked from 2007 to 2010 as Associate Director in the leveraged finance department supporting numerous private equity companies in financing LBO transactions. Prior to joining Steadfast Capital, Sven was part of the investment team of a leading German private equity firm where he led numerous national and international private equity transactions, most recently as Director.

Steadfast Capital

Steadfast Capital is an independent private equity investor focusing on medium-size businesses within German speaking Europe and Benelux countries. Our funds invest in non-public companies providing financial solutions for succession issues and spin-offs from larger groups and also provide capital for growth opportunities. Steadfast Capital was founded in 2001 and since then follows a successful, value-oriented strategy of investments in healthy companies in various sectors.
